In Memory

DAVID GLENN STOCKWELL

We, the members of the 1963 graduating classes of Redford High School, dedicate this Blazer to David, who, but for his untimely death, would be a member of the June class.

An abstract geometric design on a dark, textured background. A starburst of thin white lines radiates from a point in the upper right. Two long, thin white lines intersect: one extends from the bottom left towards the center, and the other extends from the bottom left towards the starburst. These lines form a large, irregular triangle that frames the word 'GRADUATES'.

Lynn Harbour as Lavinia

Androcles (Dwight) and the Lion (Linda)

Bob Stewart as the Captain

Row 1: Bob Taurianen, Harold Groat, Bob Stewart, Lynn Harbour, Dwight Hamborsky, Andrea Naar, Carl Pfaffenberg. Row 2: Mr. Tokar, Barbara Hanra-han, Jeff Grace, Ron Jones, Mick Todorov, Dave Moutrie, Bruce Anderson, David Scott, Mr. Moldovan.

Androcles And The Lion

Although the theme of Androcles and the Lion, the senior play of the January 1963 graduating class, deals with Christianity and human behavior, its chief ingredient was farce. The author, George Bernard Shaw, combined Aesop's fable of Androcles and the Lion and the conversion of Rome to Christianity into a mixture of gripping drama and riotous hilarity.

Carl Pfaffenberg as Caesar

Andrea Naar as Megaera

Bob Taurianen as Ferrovius

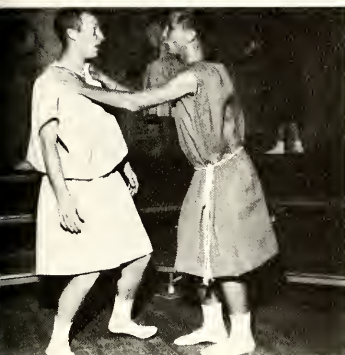

Androcles and the Lion, the stars of the play, are displaying some of that riotous hilarity.

The Christians are begging Caesar to spare their lives.

The gladiators are awaiting their entrance to the arena.

Pintho is pleading for martyrdom to Androcles.

A Roman Captain and a Christian girl are portraying the only serious roles in the play.

Androcles and his wife, seeing the "ferocious" lion, are taken aback.

Making the play a success, was the element of hilarity, confusion,

and authority.

The Sophomore Mixer helps 10B's get acquainted.

The Kick-Off traditionally marks the beginning of the football season and social life at Redford.

Bob Durant's was only one of the bands at the quad-school dance, Fantasma.

All was not sophistication at the J-Hop.

Mr. Christy opened the assembly with a farewell message to the graduating class.

The outstanding musical awards went to Pollie Blakeley and Lauran Brown.

Honors

Richard Wells accepted the Seitz Trophy in behalf of the Key Club.

Marilyn Bendena received the French Club award from president Bruce Anderson.

Many seniors received awards they richly deserved.

As Seniors How Could We Forget . . .

Kathy Flatley interviewing "Simple Simon" Stevens.

eating in the office foyer when the Senior Lunchroom was being repaired.

"the Blakeley hillbillies."

"the Great Ham."

the posse out to catch Lynn Harbour.

cheering during our last football season.
singing along with Dave Moutrie.

being measured for our caps and gowns.

the "sit-in strike" for Eric Pape.

The toast to the boys and girls at the Senior Luncheon.

The way we ate on the Senior Snow Trip.

The limbo craze which kept us busy.

The wonderful fun on the Snow Trip.

The countless assemblies which brought us to school too early.

Meeting our proud parents after Commencement.

Winter Concert

The choir sang "Weep O Willow."

Mr. Meier directed the mixed ensemble in "O Sing Ye to the Lord."

The concert band played selections from "Mr. Lucky."

The choir, glee clubs, and orchestra combined for the finale, "The Music Man."

Class Day

Kathy Krebaum presented the award to the outstanding senior girl, Lynn Harbour.

Kathy Flatley's class history speech was enjoyed by everyone.

The valedictory speech was given by Mary Lou Dunnaback and was a perfect summation of the seniors' four years at Redford.

Dr. Hamburg, the guest speaker, seemed to enjoy class day as much as the seniors.

David Moutrie passed the gavel to his successor, Robert Chapel.

Graduation

The first signs of graduation excitement showed up in strange ways.

The long wait before the long walk.

The worry, apprehension, and hard work were worth it for this.

The teachers seem to be recalling their own high school graduation.

The senior luncheon was held at the Sno-White Dining Room.

Senior Luncheon

The luncheon speakers were an outstanding group. Barbara Stevens doesn't seem to agree.

The general reaction of the girls and the boys is conveyed in their expressions.

The Senior Prom ticket is only a minor consideration.

Flowers generally present a moment of confusion.

All worries vanish as the dancing begins.

If all else fails, food stimulates conversation.

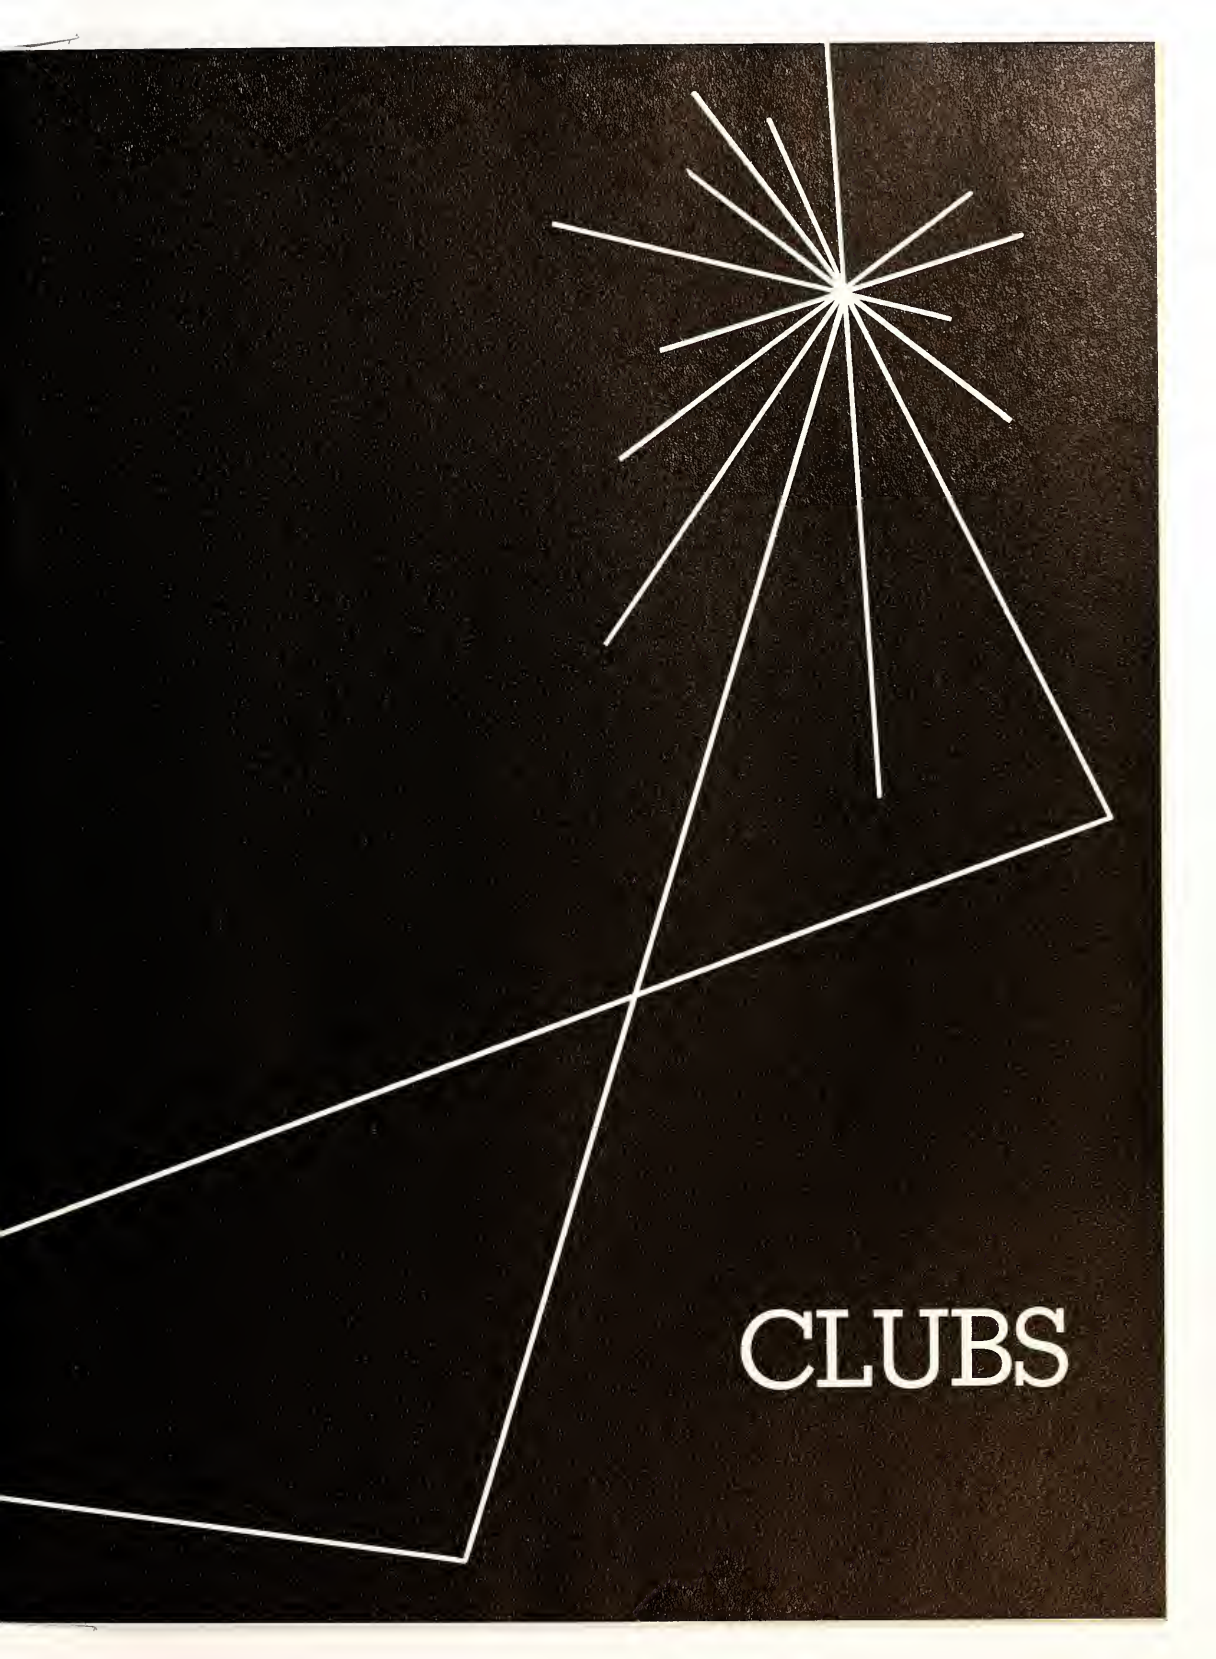

Bands usually welcome requests for favorite songs.

The evening whirls by, and all too soon . . .

the party's over.

Cross Country

Redford's Huskie Harriers raced undefeated in their 1962 season. Coach Waha has much to be proud of. His boys surged to the City Championship for the fifth year in a row. There was no stopping our determined Redford team as it went on to win the State Championship for the second consecutive year.

This season the team had many outstanding sophomores. Art Link, Tom White, and John Eicher, were all newcomers. They placed among the top fifteen in the State meet. The Harriers are looking forward to another successful season next year. Work hard boys! Redford is proud of you.

Varsity Football

Joe Burcar received All-City honors for his outstanding defensive play.

Strong offensive play along with a solid defense led this year's team to another successful season. Winning five out of seven games, our Huskies placed third on the West Side and upheld their reputation as tough competitors. Quarterback Bob Hershey and Co-Captains Eric Pape and Tony Young did a fine job leading the team as well as performing brilliantly on the field. Although many players are graduating, Coach Larimore feels that the vacancies will be well filled by upcoming prospects.

All-City honors also were awarded to Ron Jones for his defensive play.

This was a year of rebuilding for the golf team. This year's basketball team completed the best season in school history with a record of nine wins and three losses. It was a hard fought season, climaxed by a victory over Western, giving Redford sole possession of third place in the West Side standings. Other records were also established. The school scoring record was broken by Co-Captain Dennis Rogers when he scored 36 points in one game. Later in the season, Redford hit 89 points against Cody for a new team high.

The outstanding player would have to be Dennis Rogers. His accomplishments included a league scoring average of 22 points, 15 rebounds, and a new individual scoring record. For his superior play, he received All-City recognition.

With only two seniors graduating, it appears that next year's team could be even stronger. Redford has certainly come into its own in basketball.

Boys' Swimming

Redford's swimming team ended its season with an excellent record. Out of seven meets, our Tankers won five. They placed fourth in the City Championship with thirty-six and one half points. Jim Dillon and Allen McDaid were two of the team's outstanding swimmers. Jim placed third in the City 100 yard free style, and Allen placed third in the 200 yard free style. With hard work and determination, for which our Redford boys are noted, we can look to next year for another successful season.

Varsity Track

The 1963 track team, under the direction of Mr. Bruce Waha and Captain Bob Laverty, had another successful season. Although composed of many sophomores and juniors, the cindermen did exceptionally well placing second in the Redford Relays.

As in the past, the strongest events were the quarter mile, half mile, and mile. The possibility of a good showing in the city and state meets, as well as an even stronger team in the future, is anticipated by Coach Waha.

An abstract graphic design on a dark, textured background. A white starburst shape, composed of approximately 15 thin lines radiating from a central point, is located in the upper right quadrant. Two long, thin white lines intersect: one starts near the starburst and extends diagonally down towards the bottom left, while the other starts from the left edge and extends diagonally up towards the right. These lines intersect in the lower half of the frame. The word "UNDERCLASS" is printed in a white, serif, all-caps font, positioned below the intersection of the two lines.

"Build a stairway to the stars."

"My little calendar girl."

"Making whoopie."

A MELODY

"Who put the overalls in Mrs. Murphy's chowder?"

"All American girls"

"Dry bones"

"When the saints go marching out"

"Are you from Redford"

"Sleepy time pal"

"Jailhouse rock"

"I hear music and there's no one there"

"Look down, look down,"

that lonesome road."

"Getting to know you."

"You've got to be a football hero."

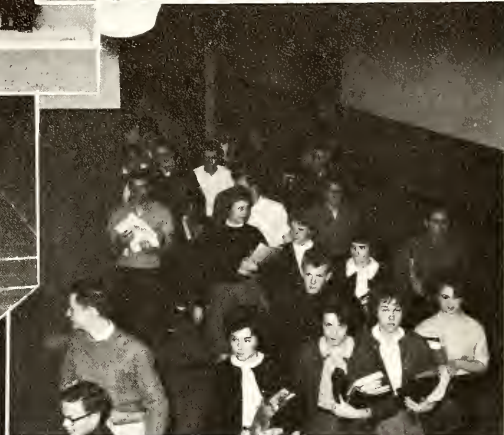

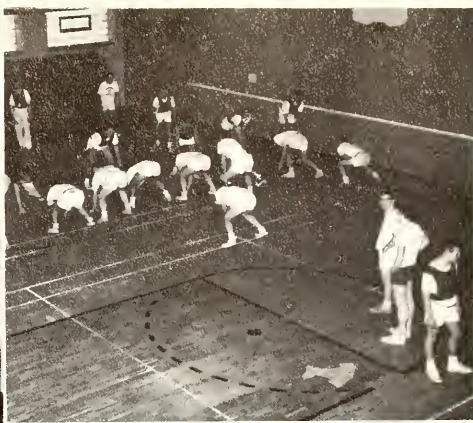

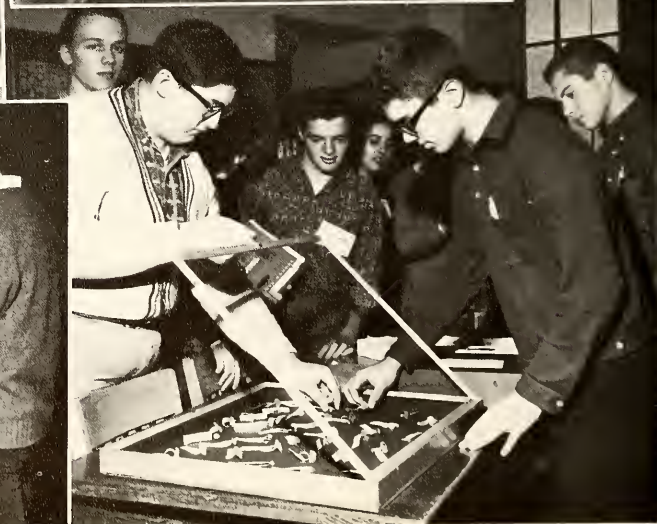

"I could have danced all night."

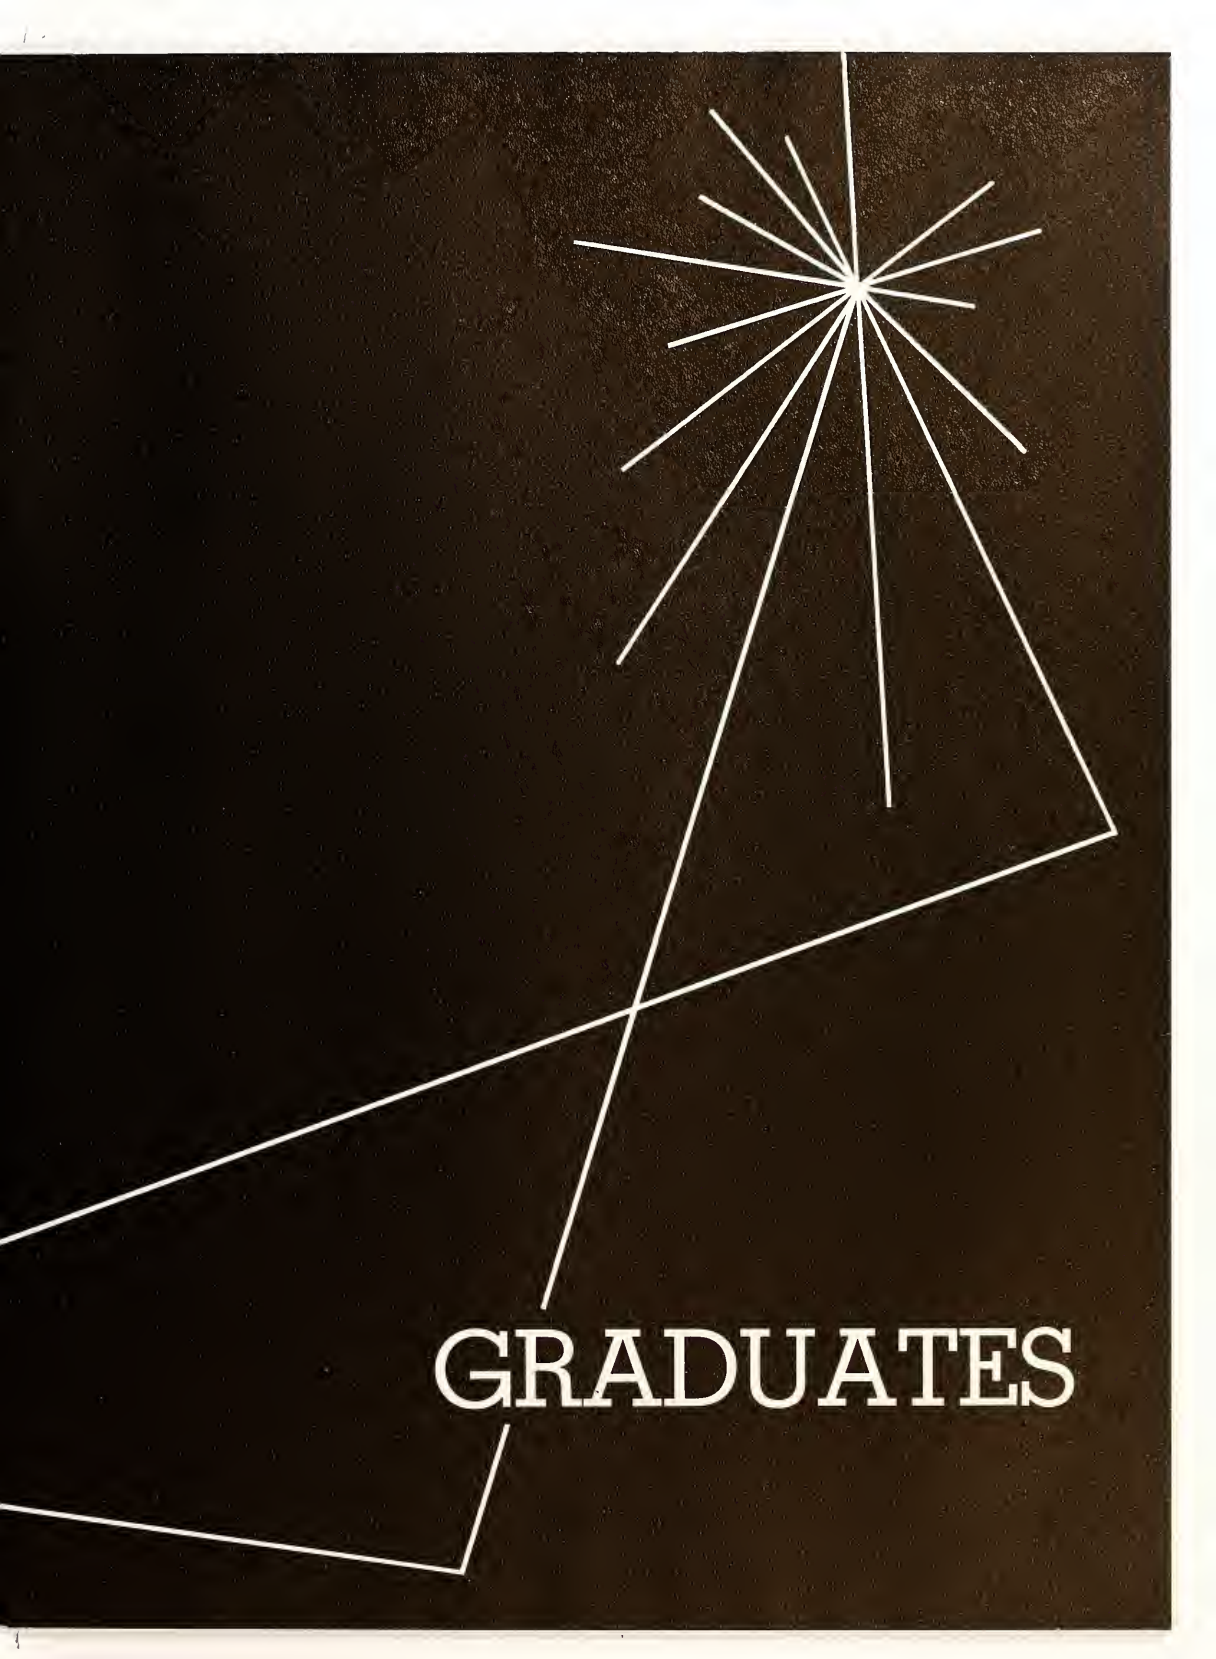

"I've got rhythm."

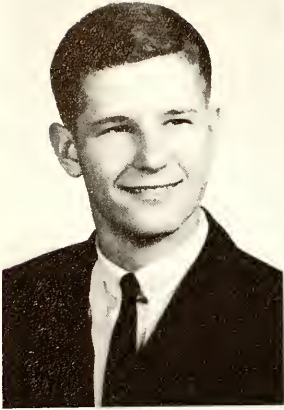

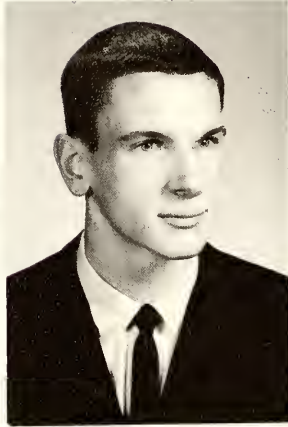

An abstract geometric design on a dark brown background. A starburst of thin white lines radiates from a point in the upper right. Two long, thin white lines intersect: one slopes downward from the left, and the other slopes upward from the bottom left. The word "GRADUATES" is printed in white, serif, all-caps font, positioned between the two intersecting lines.

Blazer

Our leader and protector, Mr. Whitman, watches over the eighth hour staff.

Seventh hour Blazer staff is not always this busy.

A good game of tick-tack-toe takes up much of the Outpost staff's time.

Mr. Horowitz couldn't be giving some advice, could he?

"What a wonderful man Sheridan Whiteside is."

"I may vomit!"

"That's my message to you, big Lord Fauntleroy."

Left to right: Jim Comer, John Bullington, Scott Chilman, Andrea Naar, Charles Small, Bob Chapel, Carolyn Semon, Marilyn Brown, Dick Kaump, Bill Betts, Dick Sanderson, Irene Pollock, Pamela Kempf, Brian Foster, Judi Valrance, Pat Bogart, Ray Milauskas, John Homminga, Al Waisanen, Ruth Bolton, Jim Pollock, Barbara Stevens, Bob McKnight, Edie Waltz, Carl Monnier, Mr. Moldovan, Jim Ladd.

The Man Who Came To Dinner

"This brassiere was once worn by Hedy Lamarr."

"But I have to get this interview, Mr. Whiteside."

"You were gone long enough to have a baby!"

"I thought I saw a penguin with a thermometer in his mouth."

"She chased him, panting from castle to castle."

"Dear Mr. Whiteside, I have something for you."

"I've come to see my sick friend, Sheridan Whiteside."

"A penguin bit me!"

"Dust thou art and dust to dust."

OKLAHOMA

REDFORD'S FIRST MUSICAL

FACULTY

Dear Seniors of June 1963:

As young adults, you are entering a world that is fast becoming a different environment from that of your parents — even from that of your older brothers and sisters. An important aspect of this change concerns scientific matters. But new problems, and the achievements of physicists, chemists, and engineers in general are not alone significant.

Perhaps of even greater importance is the increasingly complicated problem of human relationships. Your erstwhile small world had involved only people with similar customs, ideas, and values. The situation is changing explosively, almost bewilderingly. You are going to have to change, to raise your sights. You must learn to recognize broader and more essential values; to recognize that an unfamiliar "value" is not inferior because it is different from yours. It will be well to cultivate patience, understanding, and in a special sense, humility.

What Redford has been able to do to prepare you for the challenges of this rapidly changing world has depended partly on the services offered by your school, partly on your personal contribution as a student. From now on, much more of the responsibility in this matter will rest with you alone. As you leave us at Redford to build your place in adult society, be assured that the staff and I wish you well. We shall be glad to hear from you from time to time, and we shall continue to stand by, ready and eager to be of any help that future occasion might demand.

Sincerely,

C. R. Christy

English Department

Redford's English Department offers not only regular English classes and honor classes, but also a Deep Reading program. Speed reading is another extra that is offered.

The speech classes offered aid to students in preparing to confidently meet the adult world. Many of the public-speaking students from Redford receive honors in speech contests each year.

Social Studies Department

The Social Studies department plays an important part in preparing Redford students for citizenship as Americans. American history, civics, and economics classes along with elective courses work towards this goal. By holding mock elections at the regular election times, the department works to prepare students to grow up to be thinking, responsible voters.

In this day of tenseness, we all need to better understand our neighbors next door and across the world. By studying background, culture, and history of the various countries, we do this. But, most important, we must understand the languages. To break down the barriers built up the world over, we should be able to understand another country's language, whether it be Spanish, French, Russian or any other.

Sponsored under the Foreign Language Department are Spanish, Latin, and Russian Clubs.

Math Department

Mathematics is becoming increasingly important in our day and age. Each missile that soars up through our atmosphere is backed by thousands of mathematical principles and calculations.

Redford offers algebra 1-4, geometry, and senior math, as well as several other courses.

The Fine Arts Department has practically outdone itself this year producing not only the Winter and Spring Concerts, but also Redford's first musical production, "Oklahoma." Redford also was a first this year when it came to participating in the Region Vocal Competition in Pontiac. Out of ten Redford soloists entering, eight received a one rating. All four ensembles which entered received a one rating. It should also be noted that Mr. Arnoldi has been made the director of the All City Honors Band.

Science Department

Telstar, satellites and astronauts existed only in science fiction novels or men's imagination less than thirty years ago. Now they are a reality. Yes, science has become much more important than it once was. Redford offers students a full science program, including courses in biology, chemistry, and physics.

Business Education Department

From Redford's halls each year many qualified secretaries, stenographers, bookkeepers and retailers go forth to face the business world. They have learned their particular jobs in Redford's Business Education Department.

Co-op has long been popular in aiding students to get training and experience for the future. A new system of office co-op has been set up this past year at Redford.

Have you ever sniffed appreciatively at the aroma of fine food in Redford's halls? These aromas come from the food classes of the Vocational Department. These classes are co-educational. Students' wardrobes are made by clothing classes.

The drafting classes are changing from simply learning about drafting skills to the practical application of them.

Many other classes are offered in the Vocational Department that aid students in practical living.

Physical Education Department

The Physical Education Department has had a busy year with all the athletic events and other activities. A Dance Work Shop was started under the direction of Miss Delanghe. Both boys and girls are members, and the choreography for Redford's musical "Oklahoma" was done by them. Students can also look forward to next semester for a co-ed advanced swimming class which is to begin.

GOING TO COLLEGE? YOU NEED THIS FOLDER

You will find this folder helpful in planning the financial part of your college career. It tells how NBD loans money for college expenses with up to six years to repay in monthly installments. There is a handy Check List for personal expenses so often overlooked when preparing a college budget. Typical costs are shown as a guide for figuring your own. Folder mailed on request.
